Sub: Simplex Castings participates in “MSME Defence Conclave- Enabling MSMEs in Aerospace and Defence Supply Chain”

Dear Sir / Madam,

Simplex Castings Ltd is pleased to announce that Dr. (Mrs.) Sangeeta Ketan Shah, Managing Director at the company was invited as an esteemed panellist at the MSME Defence Conclave – “Enabling MSMEs in Aerospace and Defence Supply Chain,” scheduled to be held on September 25, 2025, at Hotel Courtyard by Marriott, Bhopal.

This prestigious event, organised by the Ministry of Defence (Department of Defence Production, Government of India) and the PHD Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PHDCCI), brought together key thought leaders from government and industry. The conclave focused on empowering MSMEs through innovation, digital technologies, and integration in the aerospace and defence value chain.

Dr. Shah will contribute as a panellist in the technical session, ‘Leveraging Innovation and Digital Technologies to Enhance MSME Competitiveness in the Aerospace Defence Supply Chain.’ She will share insights on Industry 4.0 adoption, digital simulation, prototyping tools, smart manufacturing practices, integration challenges in the defence ecosystem, improving product quality and reducing costs, etc.

Simplex Castings Ltd. is proud to be recognised for its ongoing commitment to excellence and innovation in defence manufacturing. Dr. Shah’s participation signifies the company’s leadership and engagement in shaping the future of the Indian aerospace and defence ecosystem.

Speaking on this opportunity, Mr. Ketan Shah, Chairman and Executive Director, said "Simplex Castings remains committed to driving technological advancement and operational excellence in defence manufacturing, empowering MSMEs to become contributors to the national supply chain. Dr. Sangeeta Shah’s participation highlights our dedication to integrating innovation and smart manufacturing in the Indian defence ecosystem."
